

October 12, 1976

JUNG LECTURE-EXHIBIT SERIES OPENS THURSDAY OCT. 14

Dr. Gustav Morf, the noted psychiatrist and Jungian authority will open Concordia's Carl Jung Exhibition-Lecture series, Thursday, October 14 at 8 p.m. in the D.B. Clarke Theatre, in the Hall Building, de Maisonneuve at Bishop.

The series which includes a photo exhibition on the life and work of Jung prepared by the Pro Helvetia Foundation and several lectures by Dr. James Hillman of the C.G. Jung Institute of Zurich, runs from Thursday to October 20.

All events to be held at both campuses are free.

Dr. Morf, president of Société Jung de Montréal, gained prominence following the publication of his study concerned with some of the psychological undercurrents of the October FLQ crisis several years ago.

Lectures

There will be three sequential lectures in the Chapel on the Loyola campus of Concordia University, at 7141 Sherbrooke Street West:

1. Friday, October 15th at 8 p.m.
2. Saturday, October 16th at 2 p.m.
3. Saturday, October 16th at 8 p.m.

In addition, Dr. Hillman will deliver a general lecture on Sunday, October 17th in the Hall Building of the Sir George Williams campus, de Maisonneuve at Bishop, in room H-110 at 2 p.m.

Exhibition

The exhibition, entitled "C.G. Jung", will be held on the mezzanine of the Hall Building. Through text, photographs and colour reproductions of Jung's own drawings from his famous Red Book as well as drawings of his analysands, the exhibition examines his work with the unconscious mind and the collective myths and archetypes which he believed influence all men.

Photographs of Jung, his family and his work are mounted on over 50 panels. Some of the areas of his life and work which are covered in the exhibit include his boyhood and early studies, research undertaken at the Burgholzli Clinic in Zurich, his exploration of dreams and the unconscious, his thoughts on religion and alchemy, the Eranos meetings, and his journeys to non-European countries in search of universal symbols.

Films

There will be two films shown Sunday beginning at 7 p.m., in H-110.

Face to Face (Dr. Jung interviewed by John Freeman in the BBC program) 38 mins.

The Story of Carl Gustav Jung (by Laurens van der Post) 90 mins.